Photobox books creation tool - user experience design

Screenshot of the Photobox books creation tool interface showing the photo selection process.

The top navigation bar includes "2010 Holidays", "Get photos", "Share", "Save", "Preview", "Order your book", and "Close".

The main area shows a grid of photos from four albums: "Nom de l'album (55)", "Nom de l'album (27)", "Nom de l'album (128)", and "Nom de l'album (5)".

Buttons at the bottom right: "Cancel" and "Done".

Screenshot of the Photobox books creation tool interface showing the preview of a book layout.

The top navigation bar includes "Pages 02 - 03", "Back", "Share", and "Order".

The book layout consists of three pages:

- Page 02: A photo of four children sitting on a dock.
- Page 03: A photo of a child lying on a dock.
- Page 04: A photo of a man and two boys sitting on a dock, with one boy splashing water.

The title "Nos vacances au lac" is displayed on the left side of the spread.

Photobox photos upload process - user experience design

The image consists of three vertically stacked screenshots of the Photobox website's 'Upload photos' feature.

Screenshot 1: Initial Upload Screen

The title bar says "photobox" and "My first calendar". The main area has a large central box labeled "Upload photos". It contains the text "Drop photos here from your computer" and "OR", followed by a green button "Select photos from your computer". Below this is a note: "Have you try to upload photo directly in product creation tools ? It is really fast ...". At the bottom right are "Cancel" and "Done" buttons.

Screenshot 3: Completed Upload

The title bar says "photobox" and "My first calendar". The main area shows the completed upload of 17 photos to the "Summer holidays" album. The photos are displayed in a grid, each with its name and file size (e.g., "Paul, Pierre and dad", "002556324.jpg", "Amy", "Paul and Pierre", "Family !", etc.). A message at the bottom states "17 photos have been uploaded in the «Summer holidays» album".
